*Rejoice because your names are written in heaven.
(Luke 10:20)*

Let's take a moment right now to rejoice. We live in a beautiful world, which God has created. We have been saved by a wonderful God who sent his Son to redeem us. We have the Eucharist and the Holy Spirit to draw us close to God and strengthen our faith. And we have Jesus' invitation to be with him forever- to have our names "written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Let's look at three signs that will help us make sure that we are heaven bound.

First is the sign of faith. The gospel tells us, "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life" (John 3:16). Be sure to proclaim your faith in Jesus each day. Tell him that you want to follow him.

Second is a sign of marks. The marks of a Christian include such virtues as kindness, patience, humility, and gentleness. St. Paul calls them "fruit of the Spirit" (Galatians 5:22). When people look at you, what do they see? Are these marks visible? Of course, we all fall short in some way or another, but we ought to be able to say that the virtues are growing, and the vices are diminishing. We don't have to be perfect; we just have to be on the right path.

The final sign is love. Jesus told us, "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (John 15:13). He told us that our "neighbors" are not just the people we like, but even our enemies (Luke 10:27-37; Matthew 5:44). So if we are moving forward in the goal of caring for the poor, forgiving those who have hurt us, and treating everyone with kindness, we can count this as another sign.

Jesus wants all of us to be with him in heaven. To that end, he has died for us; to that end, he has given us his spirit. Truly, we serve a loving, generous God!

"Jesus, more than anything else, I want to be with you in heaven."
