*You shall love...your neighbor as yourself.
(Luke 10:27)*

Think about the last time you or someone you take care of caught the flu. You probably stopped the normal course of daily life in order to deal with the illness. Now think about the Samaritan in this well-known parable. He was no less busy than the priest or the Levite who had passed by the wounded man in the street. He wasn't just wandering along the road; he was going about business.

The Samaritan's business, though, wasn't the most important thing to him. No, more important was his willingness to look at the beaten man and suffer with him - not physically, but in his heart and thoughts. Compassion welled up in him and took precedence over his plans. And so, a man's life was saved.

No matter who we are or where we live, we all face the same question: "Is the normal course of my day more important than the suffering I see around me?" You don't have to go looking high and low for it; you will come across it as you go about your everyday life. Perhaps someone you meet has been robbed of confidence or joy. Maybe someone seems beaten and overwhelmed by financial challenges or marital troubles. Maybe someone is living as one left for dead, lonely and alone. Ask the Holy spirit to help you see these people as he does, to hear what they aren't saying, and to have the compassion to stop and be a "neighbor."

When you stop to take care of someone, to suffer with them, you are doing far more than offering human kindness. You are becoming a vessel for Christ. He is ministering at the very moment - to both of you!

Repeatedly in the Gospels, we read, "Jesus had compassion" - because people were harassed, helpless, sick, blind, or anxious. The reason didn't matter; their suffering moved him, and he acted. Now he is telling all of us, "Go and do likewise" (Luke 10:37).

"Holy Spirit, open my eyes to the hurting people around me. Make room in my heart for compassion to overflow."

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JULY 10, 2016

THANK YOU PARISHIONERS OF ST. ELIZABETH AND ST. JULES

Dear Fr. Andrew and Parishioners,
Greetings of peace and joy!

I write this to thank you very much for the generous help you have given to the Mission Appeal I had made in the name of the Franciscan Capuchins in India. All your contribution will go a long way to help us carry forward our missionary work with the poor, the orphans, the neglected and the forgotten. I thank Fr. Andrew Merrick and Fr. Paul Gros for the wonderful accommodation given to me in the rectory; and the sisters who drove me up and down joyfully for masses. May God bless all of you with love, joy, peace and good health to serve him even better. Thanks once again. God loves you!!!
Fr. Steve Rodrigues, OFM Cap.

JOB OPENING (ST. ELIZABETH/ST. JULES)

Coordinator of Evangelization and Formation (Director of Religious Education):

The purpose of this position is to serve our parishioners by providing leadership and coordination in the evangelization and formation efforts of the parish in cooperation with and under the direction of the pastor in order to more fruitfully and efficiently assist all parishioners in living their baptismal call to holiness and drawing others into the Church through a relationship with Christ. Areas of focus would be evangelization, RCIA, adult formation, religious education, and youth. Experience in teaching, formation, or ministry is preferable. Hourly pay working 20-25 hrs/week. Must be willing to work evenings and weekends when needed. To apply send resume to dleblanc@sesjchurch.com or P. O. Box 38, Belle Rose, LA 70341.
