Dear beloved parishioners,

Despite the initial rain we had last Sunday, I think God heard our prayers and moved up the timetable for the rain so that we could have another successful Allons Manger! Even though a few of the things had to be canceled, it was still an amazing turnout. I know everyone ate very well as there was hardly anything left by the end of the afternoon. My parents came for the festival and had a great time. Plus from the posts being shared online, I think we will attract some more visitors from the outside next year. A big thank you to our co-chairs, Mark Dubreuil and John Daigle, and the entire planning committee for all of your hard work. I know everyone is interested in how much the Festival made but we need to be patient as the numbers will not be available for awhile. I will make sure everyone will know in the near future.

A reminder that this weekend is the St. Elizabeth School Fair starting after the 10:45am Mass on Sunday. If you can, please come out and spend some time to support the school and meet the members of the school. If you cannot make it, please consider making a donation to the school as this event is one of the main fundraisers of the year.

This coming, Saturday, May 13th, is the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima. It is also the 100th Anniversary of the Apparitions to the three children: Lúcia Santos and her cousins Jacinta and Francisco Marto. In March 2017 the Holy See announced that Pope Francis will canonize two of the visionaries, Jacinta and Francisco, on May 13th in Fatima. Therefore, we will be having a special Mass on that day at 8:00am at St. Jules. Following, we will pray a rosary for the conversion of sinners and "in reparation for sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary" as requested by Mary to Lúcia. Please let others know about this special Mass.

On a final note, during the Easter season, the Angelus is replaced by the praying of the Regina Coeli. As many know this prayer is recited at 6:00am, Noon, and 6:00pm. I encourage you to consider making a priority to pray this prayer at one of these hours. Here is the prayer:

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.
R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.
V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

May all of you have a blessed week.

Fr. Matthew
