Beloved Parishioners!

I want to first thank all of you for your generosity and support for the Diocesan Flood Disaster Assistance Fund which we collected two weekends ago. Between the two parishes $6,000 was raised. This total does not count however all the hours many of you have been giving to assistance of family, friends, and our neighbors in need. There have been many of you who have gone out to cook for some of the affected communities. On behalf of my brother priests and the diocese I thank you for all your efforts. Let us all keep them in our prayers because there is a still a long road ahead for so many families and communities.

As many of you read this, we are in the final few hours of preparation for the St. Elizabeth Harvest Festival. This is a great opportunity not only for our faith community but for the surrounding community to gather to give thanks to God for this harvest. As I mentioned at the Mass held on Friday morning with the school that when we gather as a people of God we come to give thanks to God for everything. The word Eucharist actually means Thanksgiving. We come to give thanks to God for all our blessings and in a particular way the land that we have. Due to this land, we are able to grow sugar cane and other crops which also provide numerous jobs and the reason why many of us live here. So as we gather this weekend as a faith community let us first thank God for all the blessings and challenges in our life. Let us also thank God for this sugarcane crop as the community prepares for grinding season.

On that note, here is a prayer that I have found for all of us to offer, to ask a blessing on this harvest. Please take a moment to offer up this prayer now and throughout the fall.

Blessing of the Harvest

Almighty Lord God, You keep on giving abundance to men in the dew of heaven, and food out of the richness of the soil. We give thanks to Your most gracious majesty for the fruits of the field which we have gathered. We beg of You, in Your mercy, to bless our harvest, which we have received from Your generosity. Preserve it, and keep it from all harm. Grant, too, that all those whose desires You have filled with these good things may be happy in Your protection. May they praise Your mercies forever, and make use of the good things that do not last in such a way that they may not lose those goods that are everlasting, through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

I pray that you and your families have a blessed week!

God Bless,

Fr. Matthew

PRAYER FOR SAFETY IN HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world,
hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order
and returned to its former quietude.
You are still the Master of land and sea.
We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control:
the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant,
can awake from its seeming lethargy,
overstep its conventional boundaries,
invade our land,
and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father.
Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother,
we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf,
so that spared from the calamities common to this area
and animated with a true spirit of gratitude,
we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son
to reach the heavenly Jerusalem
where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette
