Dear Parishioners,

By the time you read this I will be already be home, however, I write to you from St. Meinrad Archabbey in southern Indiana. I have been attending a workshop for newly appointed pastors. There are over 20 priests from at least 7 different dioceses attending the program. We have been having classes on canon law, civil law, parish finances, working with volunteers and staff, and even a class on cooking! I am also getting a chance to visit this monastery and seminary college which I have heard so much about. The workshop has been a great opportunity for me to connect with various priests who are in similar situations and to share ideas. While I have enjoyed my time up here, I look forward to returning to the bayou!

Switching from my activities to the life of the Church, in its the traditions certain months are dedicated to different devotions. With this weekend, we now enter into the month of October which for the Church is dedicated towards the rosary. Look in next week's bulletins for more information on this important devotion. In the mean time, I encourage everyone if you have not prayed the rosary in awhile to take the time during this week to pray at least one decade each day and work towards praying at least each of the mysteries once this month.

Finally, if there is anything I can be assistance with or you have questions about the faith or would like to see something happen in the parish feel free to call, drop by the office, or email me at pastor@sesjchurch.com. Have a blessed week!

Through the Alliance of the Two Hearts,

Fr. Matthew
