Death and Purgatory

In my last article, I discussed the tradition of the month of November being dedicated to praying for the dead and its importance for us as Catholics. One of the areas that I did not get a chance to discuss has to deal with death and purgatory. Now, some might say that the Church has done away with this belief, because we usually do not hear about it anymore. All the talk seems to be around heaven and hell. There are also misunderstandings on what purgatory is and its purpose. So here is a brief catechesis to help us as we pray for the dead in the month of November.

First of all, death is something that we all must face. Death is part of our lives physically. There is a natural end to our lives and we should not fear this. While the world seems to avoid talking about death or tries to find ways to “cheat death,” it is something that is important to our lives as Christians. As Christians, we realize that we are more than just a physical body; we are a body and soul. Therefore, even though this body dies we live on through our immortal soul. We believe that at death we receive our particular judgment for the life we have lived. As Catholics, there are three options: heaven, hell, and purgatory. Now throughout scripture, we are promised that those who believe in Jesus Christ will have eternal life (cf. John 6:37-40). So how does purgatory factor into all of this?

Well, think of the image of a bride going to her wedding. She wants to be beautiful and spotless in her white dress in front of everyone, especially in front of her groom. The same imagery can be used for the Church as the Bride awaiting to be presented to her Spouse, Jesus. The white dress in this case would be our soul. In order for it to be spotless it has to be free from all the stain of sin. This is the role of purgatory. Purgatory is not the same as the “fires” of hell. It is a place that one’s soul is purified of the remaining stain of sin that we carry over from this life. These souls in purgatory are on the path to heaven but need a time of purification to make them perfectly clean for the eternity with God that awaits them.

Purgatory, then, is a temporary place for the soul to go in anticipation of the eternal reward in heaven. One can see it as a safety net provided to us on our journey to the New Promised Land. This brings to mind a warning as well. Our aim in this life should not be purgatory but heaven. Our goal should be to become a Saint like those we celebrated at the beginning of the month on November 1st. Never doubt that you are called to become a saint. This is what all the faithful desires for you. Most importantly, this is what your Lord and Savior desires for you. He will provide you the path, you just have to follow.

MARCH FOR LIFE

We ask for your continued prayers for our teens, adults and consecrated religious who are preparing for a pilgrimage to Washington DC in January to defend the lives of millions of unborn babies threatened annually by abortion. The cost for each pilgrim is $400. We have been working to raise the necessary funds in support of this pilgrimage. Please prayerfully consider a donation to assist us in marching in support of a culture of life. Donations can be mailed to or dropped off at the parish office, and can be placed in the collection in an envelope marked March for Life. Please make checks payable to St. Jules Church. Please call the office if you have any questions.

FAITH, SCIENCE, AND MEDICINE: UNRAVELING THE MYTH OF CONFLICT

A Lecture by Fr. William Blazek, S. J. & M. D.

Thursday, November 17 at 6:00pm

OLOL College Biological Learning and Research Bldg.

5222 Brittany Drive, Suite B, Baton Rouge

All are invited to a presentation by Fr. William Blazek as part of the Our Lady of the Lake College (A Franciscan University) Bioethics Lecture Series. Fr. Blazek will speak on how a Christian approach to health care is different, how the Catholic worldview understands the interplay between faith and reason/science, and more.

Fr. William Blazek has taught at Georgetown University, served as an advisor to the US Secretary of Defense on the Defense Health Board, and directed the Integritas Institute for Ethics. His most recent assignment is as Retreat Director at the Manresa Jesuit House of Retreats in Convent, LA.

A reception will follow. Sponsored by Our Lady of the Lake College Campus Ministry.

6PM MASS AT ST. ELIZABETH

With the addition of the 6PM Mass at St. Elizabeth, we are in need of volunteers to help make these Masses possible:

- Lectors
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion
- Altar Servers
- Ushers

If you are interested in helping out with any of these roles, please contact the St. Elizabeth/St Jules Office at (225) 473-8569 or email office@sesjchurch.com.

SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If anyone is homebound and would like to have an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion bring them Communion, please call the Parish Office. We are not always aware when a parishioner has become ill and is homebound. It is very helpful when we are notified of this need.
