Twenty second Sunday in Ordinary Time

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we come to this weekend, many of us are looking forward to the extra day off and maybe a trip before the schedules with school, organizations, and work becomes hectic. I encourage each of us this weekend to remember to take time and say a prayer for all of those who labor to make our daily lives possible especially many whom we never see or know. Here is a prayer I encourage each of us to say sometime this weekend:

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the worker. Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities. Ensure a place for the men and women who are struggling to find work. Grant us your wisdom to greet and care for those who are unable to work due to illness or circumstances that prevent their participation. Be with the children who are not able to run and play, but instead must put in a hard day's work to help their family afford to eat, to live. Be with us all, Christ Jesus, as we go about the busyness of our work. Hold us accountable not only for our actions, but most importantly to each of our neighbors. May we continue to work together to bring about your reign! We ask this in your holy name, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Looking ahead, I will be out on a silent retreat this coming week through most of next week. I am grateful for the following priests who will be covering my Masses next weekend: Fr. Matt Dupre (4:00pm), Fr. Paul Gros (8:30am), and Fr. Eddie Martin (10:45am). I know many of you will welcome them as the cover for me. Also, a lot of activities coming over the next few weeks, please read the rest of the bulletin to find out more!

Fr. Matthew

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time - August 26, 2018

Jesus teaches us to live optimistically. If it weren't for the peak experiences of love, the small and sometimes big miracles in our lives, we could disappear. Thank God our doubts of faith ultimately strengthen our love. And just as true, our doubts that God could call us to His priesthood or religious life also demand an act of faith. If you feel a call to this, call or email Father Andrew Merrick at 225.336.8778, framerrick@gmail.com, or visit, www.diobr.org/vocations.
