29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

My dear brothers and sister in Christ,

In the past month or so, we have had many parishioners either have surgery, become diagnosed with various serious conditions, or take a turn for the worse due to advanced age or illness. We also have a list of prayer intentions on page 2 of the bulletin. If you can take a moment each day this week to offer a special prayer for them or even a decade of the rosary especially in the month dedicated to the Rosary. If you have a person to add to the list, please call or email the office. Please note that after 2 months we do remove people on the list so as to make the list is up to date.

Also, just a reminder of the two events that we have coming at the end of this month. First is the Couple's Retreat that is being hosted by Fr. Joseph Vu and myself on Saturday, October 27th. This is open to all married couples and we encourage you to take some time to nourish and enrich your relationship with your spouse. Second, is the annual blessing of graves at our three cemeteries on Sunday, October 28th. This is a wonderful tradition in our area and something I know that brings families from all around together. Please see the complete schedule on page 3 of the bulletin.

I pray that you all have a blessed week.

Fr. Matthew

Homebound Ministry

Our Church parish is blessed to have a homebound ministry to visit our parishioners who are sick or who are unable to leave their homes. The prayers of our parishioners who are sick and homebound are so powerful and needed by our Church. The Homebound Ministry needs rosary groups to visit our sick and homebound. For more information or to arrange a homebound visit please contact Linda Aucoin at (985) 369-9762

Jesus' life was the best 'job description'. Sympathy, mercy, service, compassion, total giving. Life is so rewarding when one really lives for others, rather than just trying to make all people serve the self. Do you want to serve...or be served? If you are willing to serve as a priest or religious, call or email Father Andrew Merrick at 225.336.8778, framerrick@gmail.com, or visit, www.diobr.org/vocations.
